Notice of Data Incident

November 25, 2026

On October 18, 2025, we discovered unusual activity on our network and immediately began an investigation. The investigation determined that certain information stored on our network may have been subject to unauthorized access between October 16, 2025 and October 18, 2025. Therefore, we conducted a thorough review of the potentially affected information. Hotaling completed its review and is notifying potentially affected individuals.

The types of information potentially affected may include an individual's name and one or more of the following: Social Security number, driver's license/state ID number, financial account information, payment card information, passport number, taxpayer ID number, date of birth, medical information, health insurance information, and/or biometric data.

Through our response, we have reset passwords, conducted a thorough investigation, and reviewed our policies and procedures related to this incident. In an abundance of caution, we are offering credit monitoring and identity protection services to potentially affected individuals. To obtain more information about this incident or enroll in these services, please call our dedicated call center at 1-833-341-7831, Monday through Friday between 8 am and 8 pm ET, excluding major U.S. holidays. You may also write to us at 8 Fletcher Place, Melville, NY 11747.

In general, we encourage potentially affected individuals to remain vigilant against incidents of identity theft and fraud by regularly reviewing credit reports, account statements, and explanation of benefits forms for suspicious activity and to detect errors. Under U.S. law, individuals are entitled to one free credit report annually from each of the three major credit reporting bureaus, TransUnion, Experian, and Equifax. To order your free credit report, visit www.annualcreditreport.com or call 1-877-322-8228.

Individuals have the right to place an initial or extended fraud alert on their credit file at no cost. If individuals are a victim of identity theft, they are entitled to an extended fraud alert lasting seven years. As an alternative to a fraud alert, they have the right to place a credit freeze on their credit report. The credit freeze is designed to prevent credit, loans, and services from being approved without consent. Pursuant to federal law, individuals cannot be charged to place or lift a credit freeze on their credit report.

Should individuals wish to place a fraud alert or credit freeze, please contact the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below:

Individuals can further educate themselves regarding identity theft, fraud alerts, credit freezes, and the steps to protect their personal information by contacting the credit reporting bureaus, the Federal Trade Commission ("FTC"), or their state Attorney General. The FTC also encourages those who discover that their information has been misused to file a complaint with them. The FTC may be reached at 600 Pennsylvania Ave. NW, Washington, D.C. 20580; www.identitytheft.gov; 1-877-ID-THEFT (1-877-438-4338); and TTY: 1-866-653-4261. Instances of known or suspected identity theft should also be reported to law enforcement, the state Attorney General, and the FTC.
